YESHIVA UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Yeshiva University is a top-tier national research institution with the guiding vision that the best of the heritage of contemporary civilization and knowledge is compatible with the ancient traditions of Jewish law and life. This is embodied in the concept of Torah Umadda — the Hebrew phrase referring to traditional religious learning combined with contemporary academic study — the cornerstone of the University’s mission.

Our three undergraduate schools — Yeshiva College, Stern College for Women and Sy Syms School of Business — offer a dual curriculum under which students pursue liberal arts, sciences and business in conjunction with comprehensive Jewish studies. The University’s graduate and affiliated schools — Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Wurzweiler School of Social Work, Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology, Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education and Administration, Bernard Revel Graduate School of Jewish Studies and Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary — embrace the advancement of knowledge in the professions and in Jewish and rabbinical studies, while emphasizing the moral dimensions and values that govern professional practitioners.

Our undergraduate and graduate schools are linked by a common quest: to ennoble students’ deepest human needs for purpose and discovery and to enable them to transform their communities and society.

More than 7,200 students, including approximately 2,900 undergraduates, study at YU’s five campuses: the Wilf Campus, the Israel Henry Beren Campus and Brookdale Center in Manhattan; the Jack and Pearl Resnick Campus in the Bronx; and the Yeshiva University in Israel Campus in Wi

Torah and Western Thought.

Dr. Ari Berman celebrated his investiture as Yeshiva University's fifth president on September 10, 2017. His goal is for the University to serve as both the premier Jewish higher educational institution and the spiritual and intellectual epicenter of a robust global movement to unite the international Jewish community and promote the moral and material betterment of human society.

His vision includes a continued dedication to creating an environment that encourage students to think bigger, to think beyond their individual selves, to mo

AN INDEPENDENT INSTITUTION

Since its founding, Yeshiva University has been an independent institution under Jewish auspices chartered by the State of New York. It is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and by specialized professional agencies. It offers programs leading to associate's, bachelor's, master's, doctoral and professional degrees and certificates. Beyond its extensive teaching programs, the University maintains a network of affiliates, conducts widespread programs of research and community outreach and issues publications.
